

NAME _____ DATE _____

Climate Smart Forestry QUICK QUIZ

- 1. Sustainable forestry is equivalent to climate-smart forestry.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 2. Sustainable forest management and use can help fight climate change.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 3. Building with wood is always unsustainable.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 4. Healthy forest soils can help slow climate change.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 5. All forestry products on the market are now certified as sustainable.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 6. Which of the following are benefits of climate-smart forestry?
 - a) It enhances carbon sequestration by trees.
 - b) It ensures that forest soils are healthy.
 - c) It helps to maintain overall forest health in the face of a changing climate.
 - d) Both A and C

NAME _____ DATE _____

7. What is the main aim of forest product certification programs?

- a) promoting sustainable forestry practices
- b) profit-driven projects to enhance the forestry sector
- c) harvesting trees
- d) decreasing the use of timber and other forest products

8. What is the best way to find certified forest products?

- a) Look for a sustainable forest certification logo on the product.
- b) Ask your friends and neighbours.
- c) Visit a hardware store.
- d) There are no certified forest products in Canada.

9. What can you do to support climate-smart forestry?

- a) Try to buy sustainable forest products.
- b) Participate in a well-planned tree planting project.
- c) Visit and help protect healthy forests.
- d) All of the above.