

NAME _____ DATE _____

Indigenous-led Solutions to Climate Change QUICK QUIZ

- 1. Traditional ecological knowledge of Indigenous Peoples can provide insights on how climate change has affected ecosystems.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 2. Indigenous Peoples territories in Canada fall inside provincial boundaries.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 3. Indigenous People across Canada are taking action to tackle climate change.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 4. Why are Indigenous Peoples particularly vulnerable to climate change?
 - a) Systemic exclusion of their voices on the issues that impact them.
 - b) Most Indigenous peoples live in areas suffering from coastal erosion and areas with more tornadoes.
 - c) Most Indigenous peoples live in urban areas, which are more vulnerable to climate change.
 - d) Indigenous people traditionally rely on grocery stores as their primary food source.
- 5. Why are Indigenous people critical to the fight against climate change?
 - a) They have deep knowledge of changes to the land and forests.
 - b) They are being affected by climate change.
 - c) They have deep knowledge and experience of sustainable use of ecosystems.
 - d) All of the above.
- 6. How can non-Indigenous Peoples support Indigenous climate action?
 - a) By supporting Indigenous land rights and Indigenous-led conservation.
 - b) By including Indigenous people in all decisions regarding their land.
 - c) By buying sustainable forest products from Indigenous communities.
 - d) All of the above.